

2026 - 2027

The Medina County Career Center (MCCC) is proud to provide students with a unique educational experience that integrates traditional academic skills and knowledge with technical and career-specific skills. MCCC students not only engage in rigorous academic learning but also earn industry-recognized credentials to prepare them for success in their chosen career paths.

As part of this approach, students utilize applications and online learning tools tailored to their specific career-technical programs, which differ from traditional educational tools.

The following resources are utilized in your student's career-technical program*:

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

NextGen Personal Finance

How the Market Works

iCivics

Breakout

Bill of Rights Institute

Canva

DocHub

Kahoot

FinMango

Additional websites and resources may be used; however, only those that require students to login with their MCCC account are included in the list. Please contact the instructor if resource clarification is needed.*

To review the entire list of approved online learning tools used to deliver instructional materials and enhance student education in other areas, including academic courses, please visit the MCCC Student Data Privacy Consortium \(SDPC\) database.
