 - Students not dressed appropriately will not be permitted to participate in the ceremony.
- Seating
 - Guest seating is available in the bleachers.
 - Students will be seated on the gymnasium floor.
 - Students should locate the card with their name on the seat of the chair. (This card will be given to the reader.) Students will be seated in alphabetical order by program and name.
 - STUDENTS MUST SIT IN THE SEAT WITH THEIR NAME ON IT. Career Passports will be announced in this order.
 - Family members with “special needs,” please call Anna Cass at 330-725-8461 ext. 140 by May 20th. Due to limited seating, only one person may accompany and sit with this guest in the designated area. These guests may enter at Door D2 or use an elevator available to the first floor where they will be directed to this area.
- Ceremony
 - Students will receive a blank Career Passport during the ceremony.
 - Immediately following the ceremony, instructors will be available in the designated reception area to “trade” career passports.

This awards program is being done for you, your family and friends; we ask that you give your fellow students the courtesy and respect you all deserve. We are all proud of your accomplishments and want to help you celebrate your success. This is a recognition ceremony; talking, whistling, calling out to people as they cross the stage, is not appropriate.
