

TEACHING PROFESSIONS

The Medina County Career Center's Teaching Professions program educates students about the physical, emotional, social and cognitive development of children through adolescence. Students participate in field experiences throughout the community. Through these field experiences, students are placed in different learning environments to gain valuable training and knowledge working with children of all ages and backgrounds. (MCCC does not provide transportation to field experiences.)

Curriculum

- Child growth and development
- Curriculum strategies
- Education and training capstone
- Education principles
- Health, safety and nutrition
- Instructional strategies
- Introduction to education and training

Opportunities

- Administrator
- Counselor
- Field experience
- Internship
- Paraprofessional
- Teacher - Primary, Middle and High school

Certification*

- Child Abuse Awareness
- Communicable Disease
- Heartsaver AED/CPR/First Aid
- Leadership Excellence
- OSHA 10-Hour
- Para Pro

**Students who meet certification criteria will have the opportunity to test in their CT program.*

Students have the opportunity to earn college credits in this program.

Visit mcjvs.edu for more information about our Teaching Professions program.

